ANGWIN FOOD PANTRY

Benefit Bake Sale on Friday:

Come eat homemade cookies, brownies, breads, cupcakes or muffins and cinnamon rolls, all for a great cause! Bake sale benefitting Angwin Food Pantry tomorrow, Friday Sept 4, from 11:30 to 1:30 in front of the College Market.

Can't come by but need something for the holiday weekend? Call Susan Bussell at 963-8992. Homemade muffins and rolls are a great way to start the weekend.

Next Sabbath (September 12) is Food Collection Sabbath. We need canned corn, white hominy, cooking oil (40 oz.), spaghetti sauce, dry cereal, jelly, and mayonnaise. Please label cash donations, "Angwin Food Pantry."

In August we served 216 adults and 118 children. During this same time period, pantry volunteers distributed 1,635 food items.

LABOR DAY POOL PARTY

Stay cool at the PUC Pool, 2-4 pm Monday, games and races. $5 entry, free for members.

40 DAYS OF PRAYER

We've had some great stories come back to us already about what seems like answers to prayer. Get your copy of the calendar at <http://www.pucchurch.org/> and click on the 40 Days of Prayer icon.

PASTOR'S CORNER

After a youth rally, a deacon was counting the offering. At the bottom lay a teen-aged girl's picture.

Had someone taken that picture from some-one's wallet and thrown it in the offering as a practical joke? That's the kind of thing teenagers sometimes do.

But for some reason he turned the picture over. On the back of her own picture, a girl had written, "I have nothing to give but myself."

Whether we have little to give or much to give, that's the heart-felt response God is looking for.
