PACIFIC UNION COLLEGE CHURCH exists to provide spiritual support for the employees and students of Pacific Union College and the surrounding community. We believe that God intended our lives to be fulfilled through being like our Creator—creative, lovers of beauty, empowering and freedom-loving, gracious, loyal, just, and merciful. Jesus modeled these characteristics and sent His Holy Spirit to bring them to full bloom in the lives of those who will trust God with the task. We are part of the worldwide Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

CHURCH LIFE

HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY to all the moms and mother figures in our church!

PUC SERVICE LEARNING'S last homeless ministries outing for the school year is today. Service Learning invites you to join students in feeding the homeless. Volunteers are meeting behind Graf Hall at 2 pm this Sabbath to leave for Napa. The location of the event will be 2295 Streblov Drive, Napa, CA 94558 (Kenny Park).

AT REST. Janene Ayer, wife of Pastor Jim Ayer, went to sleep in Jesus this week. Her Celebration of Life is today, May 11, at 2 pm at the Mount Shasta Seventh-day Adventist Church, 12 CA-89, Mount Shasta, CA 96067. In addition, all are invited to the church service with Elder Gary Gibbs, Pennsylvania Conference President; a fellowship meal will be provided. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Talking Donkey: talkingdonkeyinternational.org/janene. The service will be livestreamed here: www.thrivewithcourage.com/janene.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Tonight is your last opportunity to see PUC Prep's outstanding presentation of "Fiddler on the Roof." Downstairs seating is completely sold out, but there will be some balcony seats available on a first come basis at the door. The show is in Prep Auditorium and begins at 8:30 pm. Snacks for sale for cash before the show and during intermission.

DIRTY HANDS AND HAPPY HEARTS! Is it possible that having dirty hands can help you have a happy heart? Mrs. White writes: "In the cultivation of the soil the thoughtful worker will find that treasures little dreamed of are opening up before him." Can you believe that getting your hands dirty in the garden can increase your serotonin levels?! Coming in contact with soil and a specific soil bacteria, Mycobacterium vaccae, triggers the release of serotonin in our brains! This Sunday after celebrating Mother's Day and honoring your mum, you are invited to bring her over to Howell Mountain Farms and PUC Church Community Garden to get your hands into happy dirt! We will be transplanting several hundred tomato plants from 2-4 pm. Location is by the CoGen plant.

CHURCH LIFE

CELLO RECITAL. Treat your mother to beautiful cello music performed by Glanelle Ejurango at her senior presentation this Sunday, May 12, at 4 pm in Paulin Recital Hall. Admission is free.

GUEST RECITAL by cellist Eric Moore will take place in Paulin Hall Tuesday, May 14, at 6:30 pm.

SENIOR VOICE RECITAL by Kaitlyn Nakanishi will be held on Friday, May 17, at 4 pm in Paulin.

GALLERY OPENING next Saturday evening, May 18, 6-8 pm at the Rasmussen Art Gallery. Come view the Senior Thesis and Annual Student Exhibition, on display until June 16. Gallery is open from 2-6 pm Thursday through Sunday.

ANGWIN FLEA MARKET is scheduled for Sunday, May 19, from 8 am-1 pm at Angwin Plaza. Join us to buy and sell your goods. Check out the fire apparatus, a helicopter, and meet the firefighters! Spaces rent for $20; tables are $10. Spaces are first come, first served.

EXPLORING GLOBAL HEALTH: A Collaborative Event with Pacific Union College and LLU School of Public Health. Join us on Sunday, May 19, from 9 am-5 pm at Pacific Union College. Key-note speaker will be Dr. Gilbert Burnham. Learn more and register at puc.edu/global-health-event.

PUC ELEMENTARY'S annual Education Expo is scheduled for Sunday, May 19, from 4-8 pm. The evening will begin with the Spring Concert in the PUCE Gym, followed by a potluck, and ending with classroom presentations.

PACIFICQUEST. Pacific Union College is pleased to announce its new and expanded PacificQuest programs for grades 6-12. Each program is a week-long summer intensive held on the PUC campus for students who are inquisitive, motivated, want to be challenged academically, and get a head start with college early. Students will participate in academic programming in areas of STEM, Aviation, Music, and Film with daily workshops, recreational opportunities, team-building exercises, and evening activities. Students who fully participate and successfully complete the week of programming earn 1 unit of college credit. Visit www.puc.edu/life-at-puc/high-school-programs/pacificquest to learn more and apply. Application deadline is Friday, May 17.
